

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Unfortunately, your funding has been cut mid-way through your project.

Go back to nearest CORNER!

New member of staff lacks key skills and your budget doesn't allow for professional development.

Meet with senior management. Lose ONE turn!

Your personnel budget has been cut and you must let a member of staff go.

Move back FIVE spaces!

Your funding proposal was rejected.

Go back to nearest CORNER!

One of your project partners has stopped participating in the project.

Meet with senior management. Lose ONE turn!

The community platform was designed by a company that failed to consider privacy concerns.

Meet with senior management to develop a new plan.
Go back THREE spaces!

Your project website has crashed.

Lose ONE turn while you troubleshoot the issue!

Community leaders and project team members do not agree on the aims of the project.

Hold project meeting.
Go back FIVE spaces!

Your first community engagement event flopped.

Figure out with your team how to not have this happen again. Lose ONE turn!

You thought it would be easy to find volunteers to participate in your project. But it is proving exceptionally difficult.

Consult with PIs of successful projects.
Go back to nearest CORNER!

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Unfortunately, you have no hospitality budget for your next event with volunteers.

Go back to nearest CORNER!

Your volunteers cancel participation in an on-site focus group because travel to your institution is too expensive.

Find a solution with your management.
Lose ONE turn!

A major volunteering agency cooperating with your project will no longer advertise your volunteering opportunities.

Move back FIVE spaces!

Colleagues in your institution have vetoed your public engagement budget.

Go back to nearest CORNER!

One of your project partners has stopped participating in the project.

Meet with senior management. Lose ONE turn!

People are finding it difficult to understand the registration process on your community platform.

Meet with IT staff.
Go back THREE spaces!

You have migrated your community website to a new server and lost data.

Lose ONE turn while you troubleshoot the issue!

Community leaders and project team members do not agree on the aims of the project.

Hold project meeting. Go back FIVE spaces!

Advertising for your community event was insufficient.

Improve your public relations strategy.
Lose ONE turn!

Your team is working with outdated hardware.

Order new computers and go back to the nearest CORNER!

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Your project has suffered a major data breach.

Meet with senior management.
Lose ONE turn!

Your website has been subjected to a ransomware attack.

Go back to nearest CORNER!

The catering service hired for your community event has let you down.

Pay snacks in the local supermarket and move back ONE space!

Specialised equipment vital to your project has been stolen at a recent event.

Move back FIVE spaces!

You have lost three key members of staff and need to find replacements within the next month.

Meet with senior management.
Lose ONE turn!

Computers at your event venue need a software update.

Move back ONE space!

Your project has been placed on hold due to a funding lapse.

Go back THREE spaces!

Some members of the public attending your workshop are not fluent in English.

Find a translator and
go back THREE spaces!

Only half of the people who registered online have come to your recent outreach event.

Discuss the reasons with your team.
Lose ONE turn!

Participants have brought very small children to your event but you are not prepared for toddlers.

Develop a childcare solution or toddler-friendly activities for your next event.
Lose ONE turn!

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Reversal

Your website needs an update but you lack technical staff.

Move back TWO spaces!

Your latest event is cancelled due to lack of engagement.

Move back SIX spaces!